Time present and time past
Are both perhaps present in time future,
And time future contained in the time past.
If all time is eternally present
All time is unredeemable.
What might have been is an abstraction
Remaining a perpetual possibility
Only in a world of speculation.
What might have been and what has been
Point to one end, which is always present.
Footfalls echo in the memory
Down the passage which we did not take
Towards the door we never opened
Into the rose-garden. My words echo
Thus, in your mind.

But to what purpose
Disturbing the dust on a bowl of rose-leaves
I do not know.

Other echoes
Inhabit the garden. Shall we follow?
Quick, said the bird, find them, find them . . .

T. S. Eliot

*Post impressions are as variegated as today is from tomorrow: heads back in laughter, forward in tears, long walks, long nights, short weekends. Impressions are a blur of time, color, emotion, faces.
They are created in various shapes and sizes; they create the individual.*
